HAPPENINGS ABOUT CITY TOLD IN BRIEF

Mr. George H. Hayden, a former resident, is here on a short visit.

The payment of election bets will be in order tomorrow.

The Alexandria Post of the American Legion will give a dance on Friday night, in the Elks auditorium.

Many former residents, who still retain their vote in this city, were here today and cast their ballot.

The Eagle A. C. defeated the Rosebuds A. C. in a hard fought game Sunday. Score 18 to 12. Midkiff and Nowland played ends.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Raymond H. Cheeke, of Alexandria, and Corrine H. Bagley, of Delashana, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bibb had as their guest last week Mrs. H. P. Hutchinson and daughter, Dorothy, of Monroe, Va.

Rev. Brother Owen of the Xaverian School faculty has been called home owing to the serious illness of his sister, Miss Walker of Baston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert McCuen have returned to their home in Norfolk after a two weeks visit to Mr. McCuen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCuen, in the Wagar apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Harris and little son, who have been on an extended trip through the South were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs. B. B. South, en route to their home in Roanoke.

Election returns tonight will be shown by the chamber of commerce in front of their headquarters at Fairfax and Cameron streets and also by the Brooks, Harding and Coolidge Club in front of their hearquarters at Washington and King streets.

The funeral of Mrs. Francis Canavan, who died in Washington, took place, this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Services were conducted by Rev. William Winston and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Several of the ladies of St. Mary's Catholic Church have formed a club to be known as St. Elizabeth's Circle the purpose of which is to assist in the sewing and care of the chapel connected with the Xaverian School. Miss Ellen C. McFarland is president of the circle and she is being assisted by eleven other ladies.

Services in observance of All Souls Day were held this morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church and attended by large congregations. The services held yesterday afternoon at St. Mary's cemetery in observance of All Saints Day were largely attended and conducted by Rev. Louis Smet and Rev. William Winston. An address was delivered by Rev. Louis Smet.

THE EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

A goodly crowd gathered at the First Baptist Church to hear the initial sermon of Rev. H. I. Stewart, in the Evangelistic series. There was considerable interest manifested and Mr. Stewart spoke in his usual happy, effective vein. The chorus choir was present and did effective work. In spite of so many diversions at this time there is promise of results. Undoubtly the crowds will grow each night. Familiar hymns are being sung, and there is a song and prayer service for fifteen minutes at the beginning of the service. Meetings begin promptly at 7:45 o'clock.

UPPER CLASS WOMEN MAKE THE "RATS" LIVE HARD

New York, Nov. 2.—"Thou shalt be prepared to furnish upper class women with powder whenever they so desire."

This is one of the rules adopted for girl freshmen of the school of commerce of New York University.

The freshmen—or freshwomen to be exact—are compelled to wear lisle stockings and are not allowed to talk to the "members of the opposite sex within a radius of one block of the university."

GROVER BERGDOLL CAUGHT IN GERMANY, TRAVELER SAYS

Returning Philadelphian Says He Caused Draft Dodger's Arrest Near Coblenz.

New York, Nov. 2.—The statement that he had caused the arrest near Colblenz, Germany, of Grover C. Bergdoll, wealthy Philadelphia escaped draft evader was made here yesterday by a passenger on the steamship Rotterdam, who gave his name as J. W. Hartman and his address as 1252 Dover street, Philadelphia.

Hartman told cussoms officers that he once had been employed near the Bergdoll home and when several weeks ago, while he was in the Coblenz area, his attention was called to a young man, who had just bought a motor car, he recognized him as Bergdoll.

Declaring that the American Army authorities at Coblenz could confirm his statements, Hartman added, "of course, they would not tell you anything about it yet.

Accused Of Death Threat.

New York, Nov. 2.—Department of Justice agents yesterday arrested Albert Bailin, of Brooklyn, on a charge of having sent a letter to the postmaster of New York, threatening to kill the postmaster, and blow up the Woolworth building "unless all political and industrial prisoners are freed." He was held in $5,000 bail.

Agents of the Department of Justice said they believed Bailin wrote the letter in hope of getting a job with the givernment by "exposing" a fake plot.

POLICEMAN RESIGNS

Policeman Raymond Smith has tendered his resignation to Mayor Duncan, effective at once. Mr. Smith resigned to accept a position with the Texas Oil Company.

The board of police commissioners will hold a special meeting at 7:30 o'clock Friday night in the office of Mayor Duncan to fill the vacancy.

All applicants are requested by the commissioners to appear in person, otherwise their applications will not be considered

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A masked Hallowe'en party was given last night by Miss Jane Metcalfe. Those present were Misses Virginia Goodrich, Eleanor Mander, Kathleen Otis, Mary Walker, Sarah Dettor, Audrey Nalls, Kathleen Nalls, Viola Lyles, Naomi Massey and Virginia Haynes. Messrs. Victor Eaton, Louis Herns, Raymond Eaton, Arnold Twiner, Walter Davis, Jamie Sutton, William Duty, George Taylor, Neil Bettis, Claude Clark and Vernon Taylor.

RETURNS AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

As has already been stated in the Gazette, the Chamber of Commerce has perfected plans to receive election returns over a special wire tonight in the rooms of the Chamber.

An invitation is extended to all city officials as well as the friends of the Chamber generally to be present. The ladies will find ample and comfortable accommodation.

"You Have Kept Faith," Is Glass' Word to Cox

Lynchburg, Nov. 2.—Senator Carter Glass last night sent the following telegram to Dayton to Governor Cox: "You have fought a good fight, you have kept the faith. God grant you may wear the crown.

"Carter Glass."

CANDIDATES AWAIT VERDICT OF VOTERS

Political Destiny of U. S., Rests Today With People

DOPE NO LONGER GOOD

Forecast and Prediction Give Way Before Electorate With Ballots Which Count —Both Parties Confident

New York, Nov. 2.—The seven Presidential candidates of 1920 last night had submitted their case to their jury and awaited the verdict of the electorate today.

The bustle of months ended last night at national headquarters, where campaign strategists rested, their summing up complete. The candidates retired to seclusion to receive the decision of the American people. With the people rested the task of ringing down the curtain on the national drama of electing a leader for the next four years.

With the voters rested also the duty of deciding which party should control the Senate, and which party should control the House of Representatives. With the electorate of many States rested the duty of choosing Governors and Legislatures.

Party leaders, who week after week had been directing the destinies of their candidates and focusing their attention on the League of Nations, the chief issue of the campaign pulled down their desk tops, put on their hats and went home. Before they left their headquarters they had scanned last minute reports from State chairmen, but almost as closely they had studied the reports of the Government weather bureau.

With addition of women to those who choose the electoral college, party leaders, of course, expect a vote greatly swollen over that of 1916. Should the skies open, the downpour could hardly discourage enough voters to hold the total below that of four years ago, and the ballot counters are not expecting a smaller, but much larger task—so large, indeed, that the count may possibly be known much later than in other Presidential years.

Senator Harding, of Ohio, standard bearer of the Republican party today retired to his home in Marion to await the decision of his countrymen. To his party managers he left detailed forecast of the vote, and from Chairman Hays, of the Republican National Committee, there was forthcoming last night reiteration of confidence in a Republican victory. Hays however, issued no formal statement, announcing he chose to remain 'mute' until the ballots had been counted.

Governor Cox, also Ohio's native son selected by the Democratic party as its choice for the White House, last night delivered his final campaign address in Toledo, and returned to his home in Dayton. Conviction that he will be elected was expressed in a final statement yesterday by Chairman White, of the Democratic National Committee.

Senator Harding and Governor Cox fellow newspaper proprietors, have chosen different ways to receive campaign results. With Mrs. Harding, the Senator will receive at his home bulletins compiled by the Associated Press, keeping them advised of the latest totals.

Governor Cox, on the other hand, will receive election returns at his office in the Dayton Daily News, a member of the Associated Press, where special telegraph instruments including a receiver used in the Cleveland campaign of more than a quarter of a century ago, have been set up. Chairmen Hays and White, with other Republican and Democratic leaders, will gather at their respective headquarters here tonight to receive the returns.

In Boston, capital of the State whose chief executive he is, Calvin Coolidge, Republican, Vice Presidential nominee, will learn whether or not next year he is to move the Washington Franklin D. Roosevelt, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Democratic opponent of Governor Coolidge, will watch the progress of the struggle from his home in Hyde Park, N. Y.

Eugene V. Debs, Presidential candidate of the Socialist party, nominated to run with Seymour Stedman, Chicago lawyer, will have the unique opportunity of learning campaign results in the Atlanta penitentiary, where he is confined for violation of the Espionage Act. While his party leaders hold no hope of capturing electorial votes, they express conviction that they will poll a vote two or three times as great as that of 1916.

In a Presidential year unique in the number of parties with candidates in the field, other contenders for the Presidency and Vice Presidency are:

Prohibition—Aaron S. Watkins and Leigh Colvin.

Farmer-Labor—Parley D. Christenson and Max Hayes.

Socialist Labor—William W. Cox and August Gillhaus.

Single Tax—Robert C. Macauley and Richard C. Barnum.

In all 531 members of the Electoral College will have to be chosen and of these 266 will be required for election of a Presidential candidate. In the last election President Wilson had 277.

Actress Hurt In Auto Smash

New York, Nov. 2.—Helene Jesmer, a young beauty of the Greenwich Village Folles, is in Fordham Hospital last night in a dying condition as the result of an automobile accident early yesterday morning. She was returning from New Haven in a high-powered sport car driven by Philip Morton Plant, setepson of Col. William Hayward, leader of the "Heroic Eifteenth" during the world war, and also the late Commodore Morton Freeman Plant, millionaire shipbuilder.

His father was Selden B. Manwaring, and he is a nephew of J. Pierpont Morgan.

Young Plant is seriously injured, as are also two other undergraduates of Yale "prep" school at Norwalk, Conn., they are Norman L. Hussey, of Norwalk, Conn., who is suffering from contusions of the back and internal injuries, and Charles Morehead, of Chicago, whose nose is fractured and his head and face lacerated. David Calhoun, of St. Louis, and Edward Hershey, of St. Paul, were unijured.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Miss Edith Whitton entertained at a masquerade Hallowe'en party Saturday night, at her home 209 South Patrick street. Dancing and games were the features of the evening, after which a Halloween luncheon was served. The house was very prettily decorated and the costumes worn by the guests were extremely attractive, particularly those of Mrs. Charles Bohn, as a Chinese maiden; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bartlett, as Italians; Miss Alice Bladen as Folly; Miss Emma Weingart and Mr. Maurice Hawkshaw as Pierrette and Pierrot; Mr. Carl Dreifus as a cannibal; and Mr. Russel Nicholson as a Spanish gentleman, all of whom attracted special attention.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bohn, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Schroth, Miss Emma Weingart, and Mr. Maurice Hawkshaw, of Washington, Mr. Boothe Pulman, of the University of Virginia, Misses Alice Bladen, Helen Bladen, Wilhemae Zimmerman, Thelma Murphy, Ruth LeHew, Susie Murphy, Georgiana Lash, Margaret Fuller, Rosalee Fuller, Alice Whitton and Mary Whitton, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bartlett, Messrs. Ashby Bladen, Russell Nicholson, Elmer Davis, Tom Kelly, Reginald Dyson, Carl Dreifus, Tom Rowan, Frank Davis and Francis Lash.

Aerial Wedding Train Flies To Marriage of D. C. Officer

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—A score of army aviators from three different flying fields flew into this city and witnessed the wedding Sunday of Miss Katherine Clifford Durham to their comrade Lieut. Harold McGinnis, of Washington, D. C. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip H. Johnson, the Rev. John D. Martin officiating.

The army men, members of the Air Service, came from Bolling Field, Washington, D. C.; Langley Field Hampton, Va., and Mitchell Field, Long Island, N. Y. The planes flew in various fomations over the city before landing on Bustleton Field. Among the visiting airmen is Lieut. Ross C. Kirkpatrick, one of the four army fliers who recently returned to New York after a record flight to Alaska. Maj. Martin F. Scanlon, commanding officer at Bolling Field, acted best man. The bride's only attendant was Miss Mildred Rule.

R. E. LEE CAMP BANQUET JAN. 19

Confederate Veterans to Organize Camp of Sons Of Veterans

COMMITTEES NAMED

Meeting Held Last Night Well Attended—Sons of Veterans Will Take Place of Present Camp Eventually

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will celebrate Lee's birthday with a banquet January 19 next. This was definitely decided upon last night at a well attended meeting of the camp presided over by Commander John R. Zimmerman.

A number of committees were named to arrange for the affair and also to procure speakers. The camp last year omitted its banquet and Adjutant Edgar Warfield gave one.

The camp also decided to arrange for the organization of a camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans. Some years ago such a camp was organized in this city but the interest apparently died out and the result has been the going out of business of the camp.

A committee of three members composed of J. W. Garner, George W. Herndon and Booker C. Hall was named for the perfecting of the plans for such an organization.

ESPERANTO WINS FISHERMAN'S CUP

Halifax, Nov. 2.—The dashing little schooner Esperanto, out of Gloucester yesterday won the second international fisherman's race, and with it the championship.

It was as thrilling a race as ever has been sailed—a race through sunshine, mist and rainsqualls, with never more than a dozen lengths between Esperanto and Delawana and sometimes with the vessels beam to beam.

Halifax harbor resounded with the tooting of sirens as the winner swept across the line after a 40-mile race that kept taciturn old salts whooping like schoolboys for hours.

The Stars and Stripes were first across the starting line, but Captain Marty Welch in a few minutes lost his half length lead and for 30 miles had to trail the rollicking schooner from Lunenburg.

MASQUERADE PARTY

Miss Lillian Windsor was given a surprise masquerade party last night at her home in Potomac City. Among those present were Miss Edna Whiting, of Washington, Miss Lila Wrigley, of Rosemont, Miss Esther Ellis, Miss Annie Smith, Miss Alice Stathers, Miss Loretta Trice, Miss Olga Bayliss, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. S. I. Bayliss, Mr. and Mrs. Windsor, Messrs. Richard Hansbrough, Curtis Trice, David Dunnington, Clayton Ceiry and Henry Hubble.

10,000 Massacred By Turkish Nationalists Who Capture Hadjin.

London, Nov. 2.—The Armenian town of Hadjin Hajin has been captured by Turkish nationalists who have massacred the inhabitants, numbering 10,000 according to a dispatch to the Armenian bureau in London

Coroner's Jury

Testimony In Case of J. A. Fox, Auto Victim, To Be Heard Tomorrow Night

A coroner's jury last night met at Demaine's mortuary chapel and after viewing the body of John A. Fox of St. Elmo, who died at the hospital yesterday morning from injuries sustained earlier in the day when his motorcycle and an automobile truck came together, was adjourned over by Coroner T. M. Jones until 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night when testimony will be heard.

The jury is composed of the following: Thomas Chauncey, J. C. Bowie, Julian F. Pate, Ernest Demaine, C. Wingate Summers, John McCuen.

The body of Fox was shipped this afternoon to Guyton, Ga., for burial. The deceased was twenty-seven years old and besides his wife, Mrs. Ella May Fox is survived by one child.

CELEBRATED VIOLINIST

To Appear in Recital at Episcopal High School Friday

The most brilliant musical event of the season will be the violin recital at the Episcopal High School, Friday night, by Winston Wilkinson the greatest of American violinists and Miss Marie Maloney, noted pianist.

Wilkinson first attracted wide attention five years ago when he appeared in the Artist's Contest arranged by the National Federation of Music Clubs, winning first prize and appearing at the Biennial in Los Angeles where he was unanimously acclaimed "A Young Genius" Since then on his concert tours and in recitals with Caruso, Galli-Curci, and on his two seasons tour with John McCormack, his phenomenal success is well known to all. Throughout the United States the youthful violinist continues to astonish great audiences and critics alike by the extraordinary temperament and emotional fire of his playing. And in addition, to quote the Atlanta Journal, "Wilkinson's tone is reminiscent of Elman; his technique spectacular" His playing at all items is infused with an individual charm that is irresistible, besides appealing to the heart that leaves few unmoved.

In reviewing a recent concert one of the great critics said of Miss Maloney, "She is not only a sympathetic and able accompanist, but a thorough musician as well. Her beautiful tones were round and full and her difficult passages in the Concerto were played with remarkable brilliance. Her charming personality won for her first place along with the sololist in the hearts of the audience."

Mr. Wilkinson has arranged a special program for Friday containing two of the great masterpieces that helped make him famous and a number of those pieces that are familiar and favorites of all.

No one in Alexandria who considers himself a true American or who has any music in his soul" should miss this rare opportunity of hearing the young Virginian, whom the American public and critics declare "America's Greatest Violinist."

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson heads the list of patronesses, and others are women prominent on Seminary Hill and in this city.

Pranks Of Boys

Remove Window Blinds and Gates in Search For "Amusement"

Reports were made to the police today that Hallowe'en celebrators last night removed window blinds, iron and wooden gates, signs and other articles from private homes and stores. In some cases the articles were taken away and have not yet been recovered and in a majority of the cases, however, the prank players left the articles near the point where they were taken from. Most of the missing articles had been recovered by noon today the police say.

Carnival Spirit

Throngs of Masqueraders Fill the Streets on Second Halloween Fete.

Staging a post Halloween celebration, hundreds of masqueraders appeared on the streets in costume last night, giving the city a carnival appearance, the second in two days. A number of parties were also given. The costumes last night were of the same variety that enlivened the streets Saturday night, and the people had the same good-natured tolerance for the antics of the masqueraders. Confetti was disbursed in large quanties and little feather dusters, with long handes, kept the crowd "tickled."

Considering the lateness of the season, and the chill in the air the cheesecloth yama yama costumes worn by some of the girls appeared slightly inadequate, but the girls kept moving fast, being ably abetted by volunteer escorts recruited from the spectators.

The masqueraders included all ages from little tots hardly large enough to be out alone, to adults who had gray hair.

HEAVY VOTE BEING POLLED TODAY

At 3 O'clock This Afternoon 2144 Votes Cast

WOMEN'S VOTE LARGE

It Is Believed That Total Will Be Close to 3,000 —Polls Will Close at 5.07.

Up to 3 o'clock this afternoon a total of 2144 votes had been polled in this city. At that hour the voters were coming in goodly numbers, men and women, old women and young women and there is every reason to believe that when the polls close at 5.07 o'clock this afternoon the total will be close to 3,000 votes. Despite the weather man's predictions of rain, favorable weather had prevailed up to 3 o'clock although the day was cloudy and there was every indication of rain.

The vote of the women in today's election was far greater than was at first thought and it is believed more than three-fourths of the women qualified will have cast their ballot when the polls close. The total number qualified is 1499. There are a total of 4250 voters qualified to take part in today's election.

Vote by wards at 3 o'clock follows:

First	490
Second	462
Third	640
Fourth	552
Total	2144

A heavy vote is being polled here. The election is quiet and orderly. For the first time in their lives the women are voting and they came out early and from the time of the opening of the four voting places in the different wards there was a steady stream of voters at the polls. At times the crowd was unusually large.

Each voter required fully two minutes to mark the ballot. Election officials in many of the wards gave instructions to the voters on how to mark their tickets.

The women and many of the men, according to reports, experienced considerable difficulty with the ticket. The greatest trouble it is reported was with the ticket having constitutional amendments for schools and good roads. Those were to be voted either "for" or "against". Some who intended to vote for the measure if reports are true voted against and the opposite also was done.

Election officials feel that many of the ballots that are cast today are improperly marked despite the fact that instructions have been given verbally and published from time to time.

The election ballot is about four feet long and in addition to containing the names of the various Presidential candidates also contains the names of Carter Glass, democrat, for the United States Senate, who is opposed by J. R. Pollard, a colored attorney of Richmond and Representative R. Walton Moore is being opposed by Dr. F. M. Brooks, republican of Fairfax. Mr. Moore represents the eighth district in Congress. He will be elected by a big majority as the prediction of his supporters and Cox, Roosevelt and Moore will carry this city.

The fight in Arlington county between the democrats and republicans is very close and republican leaders predict a small majority in that county for the Presidential candidates.

The polls will close promptly at 5.07 o'clock. It is expected that it will require at least three hours before the result is known. The voting in Alexandria today has been a novelty for the women and many of the women came to the polls in group and some were accompanied by their husbands.

The usual hangers on who were willing to tell the undecided voter how to cast his ballot were conspicuous by their absence. The few there were around the polls kept a safe distance away as is required by law.

Women voters were very enthusiastic over voting and three women were the first to cast their vote in the first ward this morning, being at the polls before the men.

THE MORAL ISSUE.

Never in the history of the country was one great moral issue so predominant as it is now. On this issue of right and humanity, the protection of the United States and the peace of the world, the Democrats are on the right side and the Republicans are on the wrong side.

The question is whether the United States, which has taken the lead in substituting arbitration for war, shall join the League of Nations in an effort urged by Theodore Roosevelt to prevent war, or whether, so far as the most powerful nation in the world is concerned, the earth shall remain an armed camp, industry shall be mortgaged to support armies and fleets, and war shall remain the means of settling international quarrels.

The hope of wise and good men for ages has been a combination of nations to prevent war. That hope is now possible of realization. Shall we help, or shall we block it? The answer is with the voters

Under the League of Nations nothing worse could happen to us than happened three years ago, because there was no League in 1911 to prevent world war.

Article X is vouched for by William Howard Taft, Charles P. Taft, A. Percival Lowell and ex-Attorney General Dickenson, all Republicans, and by the great numbers of Republicans who have declared their intention of voting for Governor Cox in order to secure our entrance in the League. What excuse can any Republican give his conscience for voting against the League?

The Democratic party is on the side of national and international morality, of righteousness and peace, of humanity and civilization. A vote for the Republican party is a vote to keep the way open for another world war, a vote to repudiate the long-established policies of the nation, a vote to bankrupt the world in the support of armies and navies. The position of the Republican party is exactly that of the German Imperial Government at The Hague in 1907, when the American delegates, under instructions from President Roosevelt, were trying to create a League to prevent war and all the other nations were willing to support their project, and they were defeated by Berlin.

Today's contest is between Americanism and peace, supported by the Democratic party, and Germanism and militarism, supported by the Republican party.

Two Negroes Killed, 12 Others In Jail For Burning Farm Houses And Gins.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 2.—Two negroes are dead and 12 others in jail charged with arson, as the result of the simultaneous burning Saturday night of two farms houses, a cotton gin and a number of tenant houses in Montgomery county about 20 miles south of here.

Telephone calls from panic-stricken farmers in the community following the outbreak of the fires brought a sheriff's posse to the scene which was fired upon from the roadside by a band of negroes. Dropping beside their automobiles and using it as a shield, members of the posse returned the fire, finally killing two of the negroes and capturing 12 others. No motive is ascribed for the burning. The negroes killed and arrested were the most part tenants and laborers on adjoining farms.

Heavy Snow in Wyoming, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Reports last night from several States told of snowstorms, which political observers said might have some effect on the total vote cast in those sections

The heaviest fall was in Fremont county, Wyo., where 25 inches of snow covers the ground. In Nebraska and South Dakota a heavy snow was reported in a number of counties, while Minnesota reported snow in some districts and rain in others.

In parts of Nebraska and South Dakota wire communications was reported to have interrupted.

WILLIAM S. HART
"John Petticoats"
A Paramount-Artcraft Picture

There was no way out. His uncle had willed him a modiste shop, and he had to leave his lumberjacks and run it.

Can you fancy William Hart, fresh from the West—selling lingerie to the fair elite of New Orleans?

He couldn't, either. But when he got in the game found an aged judge in need of a friend, a girl in need of a champion, and a certain crooked gentleman in need of a real Hart thrashing—you'll say his ladies' shop was a gift from the gods.

A Hart picture that's different. Come!

Once Rang Up Carfares; Now Greatests Litterateur

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Knut Hamsun, Norwegian author and formerly a conductor on the old Halstead street horsecar line here back in the early eighties, has won the 1920 Nobel prize for literature, friends learned yesterday.

Hamsun came here from North Dakota, where he had worked on a farm and after being discharged from the horse-car line because he read books instead of collecting fares and ringing bells, he went East and obtained a berth on a Newfoundand banks fishing boat.

He returned to Norway in the early nineties, and in 1893 brought out his first volume—his collection of "Pan" poems

A BREAK IN PRICES

Caused by a Break in Partnership

The partnership existing between Mr. Eddy and Mr. Gerber in conducting "The Man's Store" was dissolved on November 1st, 1920. Mr. Eddy on that date retiring from the business to engage himself in other activities which require his full attention.

With this change of ownership, we at once put into effect a new price policy---which introduces substantial reductions from present costs. This season's profits will be thrown to the winds. People want lower prices, bnt generally lower prices will not be effective until next spring. We have put them in effect NOW ---we have made a definite downward revision, thus affording at once the low prices which will be current next spring.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS MEETING TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF WILLIAMS BELMONT & CO., INC.

A stockholders meeting of the Williams Belmont & Co., Inc., will be held at the principal office of the company in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, at 128 South Fairfax Street, on the 4th day of November, 1920, at ten o'clock A. M. to take action on the question of amending the Certificate of Incorporation by adding thereto the following paragraph as Paragraph VIII.

"The Board of Directors shall be classified with respect to the time for which they shall severally serve, by dividing them into five classes, each consisting of one fifth of the whole number of the Board of Directors. At the first annual meeting held after this amendment has become effective the directors of the first class shall be elected for a term of one year, the directors of the second class shall be elected for a term of two years, the directors of the third class shall be elected for a term of three years, the directors of the fourth class shall be elected for a term of four years, and the directors of the 5th class shall be elected for a term of five years. At each annual election thereafter the successor or successors of the class of directors whose term of office shall expire in that year shall be elected to hold office for a term of five years, so that the term of office of one class of directors shall expire in each year. The total number of directors shall be provided for by proper bylaw of the company."

And upon an amendment to Section I, Article II of the bylaws so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 1. "The business, property and affairs of the company shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors. There shall be five directors divided into classes as provided by the Certificate of Incorporation. Such Directors shall be elected as provided by said certificate of Incorporation, and after the annual meeting to be held in 1921 for terms of five years each, and until their successors shall have been duly chosen. Directors need not be stockholders"

And upon such further business as may properly come before the meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors.
JOHN MULSTEIN, Secy.
J. K. M. Norton, Attorney. 249-15c

SPORTS

During the past week, coach Lee Nalls, of the Virginia Athletic Club football team had his speed boys practicing different trick formations to be used in the game with the Metropolitan Athletic Club pigskin chasers Sunday, but for some unknown reason they failed to appear, and the Virginias and the large crowd who had assembled at the Shipyard Field were greatly disappointed, for a battle royal no doubt would have been witnessed had these teams met.

The members of the Virginias are working lads and are not ashamed to carry their "dinner pails" like "Dad" used to do in bygone years. However, they like athletics like any American boy; and while it furnishes them amusement; makes them strong; keeps them from bad company and improves their spare time; the also entertain hundreds of Alexandrians who attend the football games in which they participate. These young gridironers receive many injuries while performing, but are every ready to try again. During the game with the Knickerbockers in Georgetown a big tackle tried to dance an Irish reel upon Quarterback Nugent's neck, and left a scratch about five inches long thereon. Did Nugent quit the game after such rough treatment? Never! He was ready for someone to dance another Irish reel on the same neck—provided the dancer had bagpipe music—in yesterday's game. Every lad playing with the Virginias has "grit"—and it is "grit" and "honor" that will win success, not only in football games, but in everything else when the two are combined

The public should encourage these youngsters and aid them in a financial way to keep up their athletic sports, for it is sure to bring good results to all concerned.

$25 worth of Genuine Pathe Records FREE

Better take advantage of this remarkable offer before it is withdrawn

Think of what it means if you own a Pathe Phonograph! That the entire wealth of records of the Phonograph world is available to you.

You can play any talking machine record made on a Pathe Phonograph. Practically every distinguished singer, every great operatic star, every celebrated musician, and every widely known band and orchestra in the world is under contract to Pathe or one or another of the largest phonograph companies.

Collectively, the phonograph industry commands the musical art of the world—just as you can command the records of all the world-known artists if you own a Pathe Phonograph, as the Pathe plays them all.

And what is more, it plays them with a more natural and life-like tone than any other Phonograph—a fact which is being conclusively proved here every day during this great demonstration sale.

You must come in and hear your favorite artist on one of these Pathe Phonographs. It lacks only the actual presence of the artists for you feel that you are listening to their living art.

But again, let us remind you that if you would share in the advantages and conditions of this sale, you should come at once.

Conditions Of Sale

GAINED 15 LBS ON FOUR BOTTLES OF CHASCO-VIN

"I am pleased to tell what Chasco-Vin did for me. For a long time I had no appetite, got tired out very easily and was generally run-down.

A couple of months ago an old friend recommended Chasco-Vin to me and I tried it with the best of results. I have now taken four bottles and feel all made over. In addition I have gained 15 lbs. in weight. To those who suffer as I did I say try Chasco-Vin."

RHEUMATISM
Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenhru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

Chicago Hotel Owner Sent To Prison On Liquor Charge.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—"This man apparently is determined not to go dry," commented Federal Judge K. M. Landis yesterday as he imposed a sentence of 30 months in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth and a fine of $20,000 upon Charles M. Sommers, owner of the Birchmont Hotel and of the St. James Grill.

Sommers and his cousin, William Sommers, who was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail and fined $10,000, pleaded to conspiracy to violate prohibition laws and for selling liquor.

Evidence incuded part of a shipment of 14 barrels of whisky from Louiseville, Ky., which, it was testified, was being sold at the hotel and grill.

European Travelers Warned.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Travelers bound for Europe were warned yesterday by the State Department to take with them enough money to pay their way back, if they intended to return.

The statement was prompted by report from consuls that Americans who have returned to Europe to visit their families frequently found themselves stranded and appealed for assistance. Consuls are not provided with funds for that purpose, the department's announcement said.

The Corby Baking Company Has a Fixed Standard

Every ingredient that enters into the making of Corby Bread must measure up to that standard.

Every detail of the making is done in conformity with our perfected process---which develops every particle of the gluten strength of the flour. To do this requires the special dough-mixing machinery which we have invented and patented-- without its use the maximum of nutrition is not possible. With it we attain to the 100 Per Cent Food Value in every loaf of Corby Bread.

100 Per Cent Purity in every loaf of Corby Bread follows the extreme care we exercise.

You are welcome to inspect Corby Bread in the making at any time.

Debs May Sleep Through Hurrahing.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 2.—If a man may sleep peacefully while the nation's telegraph wires are clamorously chattering results of the election in which he is a candidate for the country's highest office, Eugene V. Debs, Socialist, will sleep tonight, it was indicated yesterday at the Federal prison here, where Debs is a prisoner.

For Old or New Corns—"Gets-It"

Three Drops Shrivels Them Up So You Can Lift Them Off.

Thirty seconds after you touch the corn with this painful corn remover the jabbing, stabbing pain of it stops—for all time.

No More Corn Torture. Ask Your Friends About "Gets-It."

No corn, hard or soft, is too old or too firmly rooted to resist "Gets-It." Immediately it dries and shrivels, the edges loosen from the true flesh and soon you can peel it right off with your fingers as painlessly as you trim your nails.

Why coddle such pests? Why nurse and pamper them? Why cut and trim them? Why not REMOVE them with "GETS-IT"? Get a bottle today at any drug store for 25 cents. Prepd. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.
